I choose the book(fiction)which is the tittle of the book is GOODBYE,MR.CHIPS(148 pages) Which is the written by JAMES HILTON and that book have three edition,in1934,1962 and the last edition is in 2004 .also I use the last edition, that is more modernized. let I express my idea that I understand from the above book, I want to a brief expression that I was read in three parts, which is the:

- Part one: summery
- Part two: reflection
- Part three: vocabulary

SUMMERY

The story revolves around, Mr. Chips (an old, retired teacher) living a peaceful life in a small house near Brookfield. due to its best teacher the boys' school Whare he dedicated most of his career. and also Mr. Chips is the gentle, kind and who enjoyed about about his time at Brookfield.

The book takes us back to when Mr. Chips first arrived at Brookfield as young teacher. He was a little awkward and shy in the beginning but soon gained confidence. And also most student love him on his career because his teaching style was simple.in addition he was liked by the students because of his kindness and his occasional jokes, which makes more beautiful the class room atmosphere . through time Mr. Chips become a part of Brookfield's traditions and become familiar to the boys and staff.

From that I read the most significant turning point in his life occurred when Mr. Chips, now middle aged, went on holiday to the lake district. During his trip he met Katherine Bridges, a young beautiful woman who was full of life and energy.

She was very different from Mr. Chips' reserved and quiet personality. But the difference can't make them apart they quickly fell in love and their relationship brought out a more playful and confident side of Mr. Chips. and she encouraged Mr. Chips to engage more with his students .and also she advised him to share his humorous stories and relax a bit more in his teaching. Her advice or influence helped him connect with the in a deeper way, making his class more enjoyable and memorable. And they married ,their marriage was the happy one .

But their marriage was short lived ,Katherine passed away during child birth ,along with their baby . and this loss was the most challenging for Mr. Chips, but he found solace in his work at Brookfield. Despite his grief ,he continued to teach, become even more dedicated to his role. and his student admired his strength during such a difficult time.so lastly his dedication, humor, and compassion left a lasting impact on generation of student

REFLECTION:

From first to 40 pages I think they highlight the power of kindness and human connection.

And from my view Mr. Chips might not be hero in the traditional sense, but his life teaches us that small acts of kindness can leave a big impact and also understand from where that I read teaching is not only just about lesson and text book .its also about building relationships and guiding others in life .

And also the story reflects the balance of joy and sorrow in life
